

THE CONSTITUTION OF GREECE

In the name of the Holy and Consubstantial and Indivisible Trinity

THE FIFTH REVISIONARY PARLIAMENT OF THE HELLENES RESOLVES

Article 98

1. The jurisdiction of the Court of Auditors pertains mainly to:

a) The audit of the State's expenditures, and of local government agencies or other public law legal persons subject to its audit by special laws.

b) The presentation to Parliament of the financial report and balance sheet of the State.

c) Advisory opinions concerning statutes on pensions or on the recognition of service for granting of the right to a pension, in accordance with article 73 paragraph 2, and on all other matters specified by law.

d) The audit of the accounts of accountable officials and of the local government agencies and public law legal persons specified in subparagraph (a).

e) The trial of legal remedies on disputes concerning the granting of pensions and the audit of accounts in general.

f) The trial of cases related to liability of civil or military servants of State and local government agency civil servants for any loss, through malicious intent or negligence, incurred upon the State or upon the above agencies and legal persons.

2. The authority of the Court of Auditors shall be regulated and exercised as specified by law.

The provisions of article 93 paragraphs 2 and 3 shall not be applicable in the cases specified in (a) through (d) of the preceding paragraph.

3. The judgments of the Court of Auditors in the cases specified in paragraph 1 shall not be subject to the control of the Supreme Administrative Court.
